

Modern Slavery & Human Rights Statement

At Deskdragon, we are committed to ensuring that no part of our business or supply chain is linked to modern slavery, forced labour, or human trafficking.

We commit to:

- Treating all people with dignity, fairness, and respect.
- Ensuring that all work is freely chosen and that no one is forced, coerced, or exploited.
- Working only with suppliers, contractors and partners who uphold basic human rights and lawful working conditions.
- Reviewing concerns promptly if any risks are identified in our own operations or in the small number of suppliers we work with.

If issues relating to modern slavery or human rights were ever identified, we would take immediate and appropriate action.
